ELIGIBILITY FOR FREE AND DISCOUNTED CLASSES

Residents of participating partner sites or Clay County and members of KU Alumni, K-State Alumni Association or Washburn University Alumni Association are eligible for free or discounted classes. Free or discounted admission may be available based on your residence or alumni status, as indicated next to the course titles in the registration form. For a complete list of participating partner sites, counties and alumni associations that qualify for discounts, please see page 42.

If you're filling out the registration form on your own, please indicate the residential community, county of residence and/or alumni membership that qualifies you for a discount in Section A. To select your classes, simply check the box next to each course you wish to attend. When calculating your course subtotal, be sure to apply any applicable discounts.

If you need help, call the registration team at 785-864-6779 or TTD 800-766-3777. Let them know if you are a resident of a partner site, a Clay County resident or a member of a participating alumni association, and they will assist you in registering and applying your discount.
